

Edward P. Bond

CPA, CIRA, CFE

Partner

Ed Bond has played a significant role in Bederson's success for more than 40 years. In addition to serving as Managing Partner and Chairman, Mr. Bond established the firm's litigation services division over 30 years ago. Since that time, he has been involved with hundreds of bankruptcy cases.

He has served many roles during his tenure. Some of which include: court-appointed mediator, responsible person, receiver, umpire, fiscal agent, arbitrator and has acted (along with Bederson) as the bankruptcy and financial consultant to the Futures Representatives in the asbestos bankruptcies of G-1 Holdings, Federal-Mogul, NARCO, A.P. Green (Global Industrial Technologies, Inc.), and AcandS.

Mr. Bond served as the Future Claimants' representative in State Insulation Corp's asbestos-related bankruptcy. He was appointed independent managing director in the Oak Rock Financial bankruptcy matter and was appointed CRO for EZ Mailing Services, Inc. He was also appointed to the board of directors of the newly reorganized (Chapter 11) Pittsburgh Corning Corporation and Pittsburgh Corning Europe.

He has acted as Trustee for numerous matters including the successful Chapter 11 reorganization of Dr. Madis Laboratories (100% cash plus interest to all creditors – secured and unsecured).

Mr. Bond is included in the Register of Mediators of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey. He has also served as president of the New Jersey State Board of Accountancy.

Mr. Bond is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and the National Association of Bankruptcy Trustees. He is a licensed Certified Insolvency and Reorganization Advisor (CIRA) and Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE).

He attended New York University and was named to the Dean's List. Mr. Bond earned a B.S. degree in Accounting from Seton Hall University.

He and his family reside in Morris County.
